Jim Calvert
Bill Ivey

Mayor Sue Calvert opened the meeting with a sorrowful and heavy heart. Mayor Calvert reflects the feelings of the council concerning the loss of the World Trade Centers in New York City. The terrorist attack will not be forgotten in the hearts of all Americans. Our prayers go out to the families who lost their loved ones. We offer our deepest sympathies to the victims in the Trade Centers, in the air planes and the officers and fireman on the ground. We respect the relentless work performed by the fire fighters and the police officers.

The minutes and financial reports were read from last month. Councilman Ivey made a motion to accept as read, Councilwoman Mellany Piper seconded, the motion carried.

There was not any old or new business.

Councilwoman Mellany Piper made a motion to adjourn. Councilman Ivey seconded, the meeting concluded.
